

415 Madison Ave, 14th floor
New York, NY 10017
646-762-9668
info@HedgeFundAssoc.org

www.HedgeFundAssoc.org

HFA's 'Global Regulatory Briefing' to Assemble Speakers from United States, United Kingdom, Bermuda, Cayman Islands and Guernsey Government Authorities

Investment Managers, Investors, Industry Professionals and Regulators Invited to Attend HFA's May 2, 2016 Event in New York City

NEW YORK, NY – April 19, 2016 – The Hedge Fund Association (“HFA”), a leading global non-profit trade and nonpartisan lobbying organization, proudly announces its inaugural ‘Global Regulatory Briefing’ for the alternative investment community, scheduled for May 2, 2016 in New York City. Regulators from five distinct countries will converge as speakers representing:

- US: Jennifer Duggins, Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) Co-head, Private Funds Unit
- UK: Robert Taylor, Financial Conduct Authority (FCA) Head of Investment Management Department
- Bermuda: Ifor Hughes, The Bermuda Monetary Authority Assistant Director, Policy
- Cayman Islands: Garth Ebanks, CPA, Cayman Islands Monetary Authority, Deputy Head, Investment and Securities Division
- Guernsey: Emma Bailey, Guernsey Financial Services Commission, Director of Investment Supervision

Investment managers, investors, industry professionals, regulators and members of the press attending this event will learn from the speakers’ discussion and updates on topics including Dodd-Frank, Accredited & Qualified Investor Levels, JOBS Act, Form PF, AIFMD, Cross Border Harmonization, FATCA, Cybersecurity, Insider Trading / Enforcement Issues and local regulatory issues in each country. HFA’s Global Regulatory Briefing is supported by the following sponsors: DOAR, Asset TV, Hedge Connection and HFA Annual Thought Leader RSM. Conference details and registration: <http://bit.ly/1Sa06hc>.

“We are excited to offer an outstanding speaker roster representing regulators from 4 non-US jurisdictions plus the SEC at a time when the hedge fund community faces a growing set of regulatory challenges,” noted Mitch Ackles, Hedge Fund Association President, who will serve as Moderator for HFA’s Global Regulatory Briefing. “Coinciding with HFA’s 20th anniversary celebration in 2016, we are proud to organize world-class events providing solid educational opportunities and industry networking.”

About The Hedge Fund Association

The Hedge Fund Association, HFA, is a leading global nonprofit trade and nonpartisan lobbying organization devoted to advancing transparency, development, education and trust in alternative investments. HFA’s global presence spans 5 continents. Membership in HFA includes hedge fund firms, global financial institutions with hedge fund offerings including private banks, asset management firms and broker dealers, investors including funds of hedge funds, family offices, public and private pension funds, endowments and foundations, high-net-worth individuals, allocators and service providers including prime brokers, administrators, custodians, auditors, attorneys, risk managers, technology firms, third party marketers and other industry consultants. To learn more, visit <http://hedgefundassoc.org> and @hedgefundassoc. Watch “HFA Turns 20” and “HFA’s 2016 Events” videos.

415 Madison Ave, 14th floor
New York, NY 10017
646-762-9668
info@HedgeFundAssoc.org

www.HedgeFundAssoc.org

HFA Membership Contact: memberservices@hedgefundassoc.org
Samantha Nitiutomo, Membership Services Director, 646.762.9695

HFA Media Contact: media@hedgefundassoc.org
Mitch Ackles, Hedge Fund PR, 646.657.9230, or Holly Singer, HS Marketing, 609.275.1303

###